

LOCAL MENTION

Get a Grafonola now.
Lye at Klein's.
Seed Corn at Klein's.
Millet Seed at Klein's.
Screen Wire at Klein's.
Shelled Nuts at Klein's.
Brown Sugar at Klein's.
Country Hams at Klein's.
Bulk Rolled Oats at Klein's.
Bulk Garden Seed at Klein's.
Poultry Lice Killer at Klein's.
Fresh Vegetables every morning at Klein's.
Wrapped Bread, 12 loaves 15c, at Klein's.

Get a Grafonola now.
The City Cash Store invites your inspection.
Ed. Klob, of Route 6, spent Monday and Tuesday with Farmington friends.
Get a Grafonola now at the Davis Music Store.
Have you seen the City Cash Store in its improved quarters?
Get a Grafonola now.
You should call and inspect the City Cash Store in its new quarters.
Wm. King, of St. Louis, was a Farmington visitor the first of the week.
Get a Grafonola now at the Davis Music Store.
It will be your loss if you fail to see the City Cash Store in its improved dress.
Get a Grafonola now.
Judge T. B. Straughan, of Ste. Genevieve, was a Farmington visitor Tuesday.
Do not forget that next Saturday, May 28th, will be one big day in Farmington.
Get a Grafonola now at the Davis Music Store.
Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Elledge, of Bonne Terre, were Farmington visitors Tuesday.
Squire Wm. Arnold and Wm. Murrell, of Desloge, attended circuit court here Tuesday.
Get a Grafonola now.
John W. Murphy, of Bonne Terre, is a new and appreciated subscriber for The Times.
Miss Belle Vaughn and Mrs. Sylvester Rozier went to St. Louis Tuesday for a week's visit.
Get a Grafonola now at the Davis Music Store.
The Davis Music Store have opened their new studio in this city, with complete equipment.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Delaney left Tuesday in their car for Havana, Ill., to visit their daughter.
Get a Grafonola now.
Basil Thomas was called to Fredericktown last Friday by the death of his brother, Dick Thomas.
Otey Campbell, of Flat River, made this office a pleasing and substantial call while in town Wednesday.
I have an expert shoemaker now in my shop, whose work I guarantee to please you.—Johnson Shoe Shop.
Miss Florence Doe, who has been visiting relatives in Detroit, Mich., has returned to her home in Hazel Run.
P. S. Cole is having a long strip of granite walk built in front of his residence and extending to Columbia street.
You will like the clear tone of the Grafonola. It is sold only at the Davis Music Store. Pre-war prices.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrington, of Alexandria, Va., spent the last of the week with the latter's niece, Mrs. Alex Key.
Miss Lucie Kane died at her home in Bismarck Monday night, after a brief illness. Deceased was about 40 years old.
Ernest Cleve, who has been in St. Louis for some time, came in Saturday evening for an extended stay with home folks.
Ask to hear the E2 Model Grafonola at the Davis Music Store. The new price is only $90.00 with six records.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brewer and children were guests of Mrs. Brewer's sister, Mrs. Luther Poston, in Bonne Terre Sunday.
Miss Anna Menge entertained a few friends Sunday, complimentary to Miss Grace Fowler, who will soon leave Farmington.
Have you seen the new H2 Model Grafonola at the Davis Music Store? The price now is only $150.20 with a dozen records.
The Epworth League of the M. E. Church will give a Pageant next Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30. The public is cordially invited.
The C. O. G. of the Baptist B. Y. P. U. very pleasantly entertained the other groups of that organization on the Denby lot Tuesday night.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hogenmiller, William Hogenmiller, Misses Renah Smith and Beulah Barton spent Sunday with friends at Weingarten.
"Uncle John" Graham, one of Libertyville's oldest and best known citizens, was in Farmington Friday and made The Times office an appreciated call.
Alex Key returned home the last of the week from St. Louis, where he had been visiting his father-in-law, Dave Dix, who is seriously ill with cancer.
Rev. Hise conducted services at the County Infirmary Sunday. Services are held there on the third Sunday in each month by the Zealous Workers of the Baptist church.
Five Telegraph students were placed last week by the Chillicothe Business College, three with the Western Union at Deshler, Superior and Chadon, Neb., and one each with the Wabash and Cotton Belt railroads.
Circuit Court adjourned over from last Friday morning to Monday morning, and Judge Hick and his stenographer, Taylor Smith, left on the noon train for Fredericktown, where a brief session of court was held. A number of jury cases are being tried this week.

A liberal education was on tap for our people from the good roads boosters who met here yesterday.
W. S. Sloan and family are this week moving to Chillicothe, where they will make their future home. Many friends in this community will be sorry to lose this good family.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rozier expect to move soon to Bonne Terre, where Mr. Rozier will be more convenient to his work. Their son, Carlisle, and wife will occupy their home here.
Dryden Hall, one of the dormitories at the Chillicothe Business College, is undergoing extensive repairs, new floors, repapering and refinishing, in preparation for the big Summer Opening, May 30th.
Quite a number of the members and friends of the Methodist church at Doe Run visited the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. P. McDonald Wednesday evening and gave them a good pounding, consisting of flour, sugar, canned goods, etc.
The M. E. Church at Doe Run is to have Home Coming Day on the fifth Sunday, May 29th, with all-day service and dinner for all. Everyone that has ever lived at Doe Run, and their friends, are invited. Come and enjoy this reunion with us.
William, the ten-days-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Collins, passed through the Pearly Gates last Saturday, May 14th, from the home of W. E. Bogard, in this city. The bereaved parents but recently moved to Farmington from Nashville, Tenn.
At the meeting of the Missouri Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis held at Jefferson City, April 27, Mrs. O. W. Bleck was elected a Vice-President of the organization and a Director of the Health Crusade work for Southeast Missouri.
Homer Hughes, who has been working in St. Louis for some time past, came in Friday for a visit with home folks and friends. He brought with him quite a store of wireless information which he is distributing among the local novices in that field of endeavor.
Mrs. O. W. Bleck last week attended the meeting of the State Board of the M. F. W. C. and the Jubilee Biennial, which was held at Springfield. Mrs. Bleck is Second Vice-President of the Federation, State Chairman of Thrift, and Trustee of the Endowment Fund. She will preside at one or more sessions.
The women of Farmington are rallying with zeal and enthusiasm to the support of the movement to establish a county home for the benefit of delinquent and neglected children. This enterprise has recently been endorsed by every woman's club and missionary society in the city, and the D. A. R. has voted a $50 contribution to the work.
The baccalaureate services for the graduating class of the High School were held Sunday night in the M. E. Church, South, the attendance being more than the church could accommodate. The services were edifying throughout, and especially interesting was the sermon, which was delivered by L. R. King, pastor of the Presbyterian church.
Many friends have been pleased to again greet Dr. John B. Graves, who has been at his office the past week, after a serious attack of appendicitis. He is slowly regaining strength, and when he has sufficiently recovered will submit to an operation to remove his trouble, without which he is liable to be brought down at any time with even a more serious attack.
Dr. J. P. Clark, of Perryville, was visiting old friends in Farmington and community the last of the week. He remained over to attend the Church Rally at Libertyville, which he has usually attended for many years past. He called at the Times office to renew his subscription, and stated that he and Mrs. Clark would leave about July 1st for Westport, Conn., for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. G. W. Mead.
G. O. Nations, Jr., who has been practicing law in St. Louis for several years, was last week appointed by Gov. Hyde to a position in the State Banking Department. His headquarters will be in Jefferson City, and his special work will be to look after violations of the Blue Sky Law, in regard to oil and mining operators who have for some time been reaping a harvest in selling stock in violation of that law.
Miss Marguerite Zoff, from the St. Louis offices of the Federal Legal Department, arrived in Farmington last Friday and spent several hours in examining a number of foreign applicants for citizenship papers. Her examinations were concise and to the point, and the manner in which she conducted them impressed all hearers that she is thoroughly qualified for the carrying on of this important work.
Yesterday was a big day in Farmington, and our people did themselves credit in the manner in which they entertained the delegates to the convention of the Southeast Missouri Trunkline Highway Association. The delegates were very favorably impressed with their reception, as well as various activities of the county and particularly with the unusually good conditions of the roads over which they were escorted.

Decoration Day
May 30
Will your cemetery lot look just as you would have it for Memorial Day? We can improve it by the erection of one of our quality monuments.

Farmington Marble Works
Next to the Rock Church

HOGENMILLER—CARROW

Miss Clara Carrow and Rinehart Hogenmiller were united in marriage at the Catholic church in this city Tuesday morning, Fr. Ryan performing the ceremony. The contracting parties are well known and popular in this community. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carrow, of Route 5. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hogenmiller, of Laurenceton.
The Times joins with many friends of the newly-weds in best wishes for a long and happy union.

SWINK—TETLEY

The marriage of Miss Harriet Tetley to Mr. Earl Swink is announced to take place at the home of the parents of the bride-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Tetley, in this city, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, May 21st.
This couple are among Farmington's most popular, best loved and most highly esteemed young people, and the heartiest best wishes of their many friends will follow them for a long life of happiness and usefulness.
The contracting parties will leave next week for their new home in Los Angeles, Calif., where they expect to permanently reside.

FAY—ROZIER

Miss Lavinia Rozier and Mr. Dudley H. Fay were united in marriage at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning, May 15th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rozier, in this city. Fr. Ryan tying the nuptial knot. Only members of the immediate family were in attendance.
After the ceremony the happy pair left for New York City, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will go to Los Angeles, Calif., where the groom is in business, to reside. During the late war, Mr. Fay was in charge of the Marsh Aviation Field at San Diego, Calif.

AT THE CHURCHES

First M. E. Church
W. S. Courtney, Pastor.
As has been announced, Evangelist Reed is expected to begin a series of meetings under the auspices of the two Methodist churches of Farmington Sunday, May 29th. The success of the meetings will depend largely on our preparation. The pastor of the First M. E. Church, therefore, expects to preach a preparatory sermon next Sunday morning, and sincerely hopes that the members and friends generally may be out.
The Epworth League Pageant will take the place of the evening sermon, a very fine substitute, I am sure. Other services as usual.

Christian Church
J. M. Bailey, Pastor.
Our Bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m. We would like to see 150 at the Bible school.
Morning service at 11 a. m. Subject: "The Fact of Christ."
Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. A welcome to all.

Baptist Church
John J. Schuler, Pastor.
Remember teachers' meeting at 9 a. m.
Bible school at 9:30 a. m. Come and see our new basement rooms which are now finished and room for eight classes in that department.
Preaching service at 11 a. m. Theme, "The Fruitful Life."
Junior Union at 2:30 p. m.
Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. Our meetings are full of life. Come and be one with us.
Evening preaching service at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "A Man with a Selfish Aim."
Come to our weekly prayer and Bible study Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Bring your Bible. All the men are urged to be present.

Lutheran Church
H. Hallberg, Pastor.
Trinity Sunday.
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.
Preaching service at 10:30 a. m.
A hearty invitation is extended to all not having a church home.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

The next regular teachers' examination will be held at the Farmington high school building on June 2nd and 3rd, beginning at 8 a. m. on each day. The schedule of subjects will be the same as in former examinations. For additional information, lists of old questions, etc., write J. Clyde Akers, County Superintendent of Schools, Farmington, Mo.

MEETING OF FORT-NIGHTLY CLUB

The Fortnightly Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. J. Mayberry, this being the last study meeting of the year. A review of the year's work was conducted by the president, Mrs. W. N. Fleming. She also gave a report of the work the club had done during the year: first, filled the medicine cabinets in the two ward schools and in the colored school; second, sent a treat to the inmates of the County Infirmary; third, gave twenty-four dollars to the Public Library; fourth, helped to pay expenses of the speaker representing the "League of Women Voters"; fifth, collected fifty dollars in Salvation Army drive; sixth, took charge of the Second Ward in the town clean-up campaign.
Reports were given by the treasurer, also by the chairman of the various departments.
The club indorsed the bill that is being placed before the county court asking them to furnish a home for delinquent children.
Miss Bessie Marguerite Denman gave a piano solo which was greatly enjoyed. After the adjournment, delicious refreshments were served. The club year will end with a sunset supper May 27th.
It has been a profitable and enjoyable year for all and the club will start active work again in September.

JANE SARAH GORDON

The death of this Christian woman occurred Monday, May 16th, at her home in the Libertyville community, at the age of 86 years. Funeral services were held at the Libertyville Christian church Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Elder R. L. Allen, of this city.
Deceased was born at Mine La Motte on June 11th, 1835, and in 1851 was united in marriage to Joel Gordon. To this union ten children were born, nine of whom are still living.

J. N. LEWIS

This excellent old citizen died Tuesday, May 17th, at his home near Leadwood, of Bright's disease, aged 70 years, 1 month and 29 days. His wife and eight children, four girls and four boys survive him. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their deep affliction.
Funeral services were held Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Haile, of Leadwood, and interment was in Parkview cemetery.

ELVINS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Siex went to Doe Run Saturday to visit relatives, returning Sunday.
Thos. Tribby, of Farmington, came here Sunday to visit relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Grover Gray and children motored to Farmington Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cooksey, Mr. and Mrs. Guss Miller and Mrs. Margaret Kinney motored to Bonne Terre Sunday afternoon to visit Mrs. M. E. Cooksey.
Edwin and Opal Norris went to St. Louis Friday of last week to seek employment and to visit relatives and friends.
Miss Mayme White and Mrs. Aubuchon spent the week-end visiting relatives in St. Louis.
The Fredericktown boys came here Sunday and played ball with the Elvins boys. The score was 9-4 in favor of Fredericktown. A large crowd was in attendance at the game.
The eighth grade boys of the Elvins school went to Flat River Thursday of last week and played baseball with the eighth grade Flat River boys. The Elvins boys were victorious.
Ode Probst went to Bismarck Saturday and purchased a new Ford touring car.
Raymond Prealey and Earl Norris went out on St. Francois river Saturday night, fishing.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bessinger and

Classified Ads.

WANTED—A pony saddle. Lynn Rariden, Farmington, Mo.
FOR SALE—New Ford Ton Truck, panel body, drove only 60 miles, worth $875.00, will sell for $775.00. Apply at Sunday's Candy Kitchen.
Surelay Strain S. C. Anconas—Eggs for hatching, $2 for 15; $10 for 100. Baby Chicks 20c each. Arthur E. Calverd, Farmington, Mo.
WANTED—To work outside of school hours for board and room. Young lady highly recommended. Interview Monday afternoon. Ozark Business College.

LOST—Black suit case—between Ironton and Farmington; contains ladies' wearing apparel and small amount of money in change. Notify Times Office. REWARD.

LOCAL MARKET REPORT

Prepared by McAtee Produce Co. Who are Paying the Following Prices Today:
Eggs, per dozen ..... 17c
Hens, per lb ..... 17c
Old Geese, per lb ..... 7c
Ducks, per lb ..... 12c
Stags, per lb ..... 7c
Old Cocks, per lb ..... 12c
Leghorn Spring Chickens, per lb 16c
1-4 lb Spring Chickens ..... 12c
Lard, per lb ..... 11c
Spring Chickens, 1-2 lbs, per lb 20c
Guineas, each ..... 25c
Turkeys, per lb ..... 25c
Tom Turkeys, per lb ..... 20c
Bacon, per lb ..... 13c
Hams, per lb ..... 20c to 22c
Shoulders, per lb ..... 12c
Old Potatoes, per bushel ..... 85c
Muscovy Ducks ..... 9c
Hides, per lb ..... 2c
Rags, per 100 lbs ..... 25c
Lead, per lb ..... 2c
Good Butter, per lb ..... 15c
Packing Butter, per lb ..... 7c
Rubber, per lb ..... 1c
Zinc, per lb ..... 2c
Iron, per 100 lbs ..... 20c
Aluminum, per lb ..... 10c
Inner Tubes, per lb ..... 1c

daughter, Elizabeth, transacted business in Farmington Thursday of last week.
Mrs. H. E. Scott, of Yount, came here Monday for an extended visit of two or three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Norris.
Alice Fry, of Bonne Terre, came here Tuesday to visit her grandmother, Mrs. J. Rolens.
Joe Tinsley, Tom McClura went out to Terre Blue Tuesday night, fishing. They report considerable luck.
Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bales and children, of Rivermines, were visiting relatives here Tuesday.
A. R. Smith returned Saturday, after several days visit at Cape Girardeau, where he intends going in business soon.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore left Sunday for a week's visit with their son in St. Louis.
The baccalaureate sermon for the graduating exercises of the high school was delivered at the Methodist church last Sunday night by Rev. Owens. There was also fine singing by the Baptist and Methodist choirs. The graduates are Grace Lovvorn, Grace Wolf, Verdie Cross, Viola Black and Tennessee Politt. A sermon will be delivered by Rev. Doss at the high school auditorium Friday night for the eighth grade graduates, who number thirty-six.

FLAT RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jennings and two children attended the basket dinner at Libertyville Sunday.
Bryan Coffman, of St. Louis, spent the week-end here with his parents.
Mrs. W. Lentz, who had been here a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. T. A. Martin, returned to her home near Fredericktown Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hughes, of St. Louis, are here visiting relatives this week. They came down last Friday to attend the Alumni banquet.
The Freshman class went on their annual outing to Iron Mountain Saturday. Prof. Stewart went as their chaperone.
Misses Lela Allen and Thelma Francis and Tom Horton and Ernest Lawrence were Bonne Terre visitors Sunday.
Misses Elizabeth and Hester White were shopping in Farmington Thursday.
Glenwood Baker and Harry Smith, of Farmington were Flat River visitors Tuesday.
Noah Alper, of St. Louis, spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends.
Mrs. H. Tucker and Mrs. M. H. Topping, Misses Minnie Goldstein, Vida Tucker and Virginia Topping were Farmington visitors Tuesday.
Dr. and Mrs. Haney and family attended the annual basket dinner at Libertyville Sunday.
Don Arbutnot and Dana Kirk spent the latter part of the week at Fredericktown.
Miss Ruth Sutton, of Elvina, a member of the Alumni, was present at the banquet Friday evening.
Mrs. H. Tucker and daughters, Bernice and Vida, visited R. Kahn and family in Desloge Tuesday.
Miss Lee Anna O'Dell, of Farmington, was shopping in Flat River Tuesday.
Miss Mary Jarrett, of Doe Run, is here spending a few weeks visiting her sister, Lena, and other relatives.
Brabson Cecil, Ralph Haney and Jim Newcomb were St. Louis visitors Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Schlick, Misses Iva Haney and Elsie Schlick visited friends in Bonne Terre Tuesday evening.
Roy Adams and Wilbur Akers, of Farmington, were Flat River visitors Tuesday.
Miss Beatrice Boas was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Monday.
Warren Belknap and Mack Denman, of Farmington, were Flat River business visitors Tuesday afternoon.
Frank Simpson visited relatives near Libertyville the latter part of last week.
Dr. and Mrs. Ed Griffin and daughter, Mary Francis, were guests of Farmington friends Tuesday evening.
Mrs. H. Radle, of Farmington, was a Flat River visitor Monday.
Miss Pauline Tucker was a Bonne Terre visitor last Thursday.
Geo. Rohrbach, Ernest Houser, Courtney Norwine and Ralph Haney were Libertyville visitors Sunday.
Mrs. Clarence Bess and daughter, Onelda, are spending a week visiting her father, Mr. Anderson, near Lutesville.
Misses Golden Ward and Mabel

Manson, of Desloge, were in Flat River shopping Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Schlick visited their daughter, Miss Hilda, who is attending Arcadia College.
Mrs. F. Ribak, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallace spent Sunday at Iron Mountain, fishing.
Miss Lena Jarrett visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett, near Doe Run, the latter part of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Black and children visited their farm near Knob Lick Sunday.
Miss Lola Rodgers, who has been here for a month visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Rodgers, and her sister, Miss Emma, returned to Detroit Saturday.
Miss Allene Black, of Farmington, visited her brother, E. Black, Monday.
L. J. Schults won the bowling cup, which was given away at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening.
The annual Alumni banquet, which was given at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening of last week, was a decided success. A large number of out-of-town people were present, all members of the Alumni. Their guests were Miss Vera Humphrey, a high school teacher. The seniors present were Misses Elizabeth White, Stella Hammock and Flonna Windle; George Rohrbach, Ernest Houser, Willis Dequise, Ralph Haney, Brabson Cecil, Farrell Burns and Jim Newcomb. The new officers elected were: Ralph Tucker, president; Chas. Goff, vice-president; Miss Elsie Reed, secretary. Roger Black, of Flat River, visited relatives in Farmington Sunday.
Mrs. Will Pierson, of Iron Mountain, visited her sister, Mrs. O. Moore, who has been quiet sick for several weeks.
Mrs. R. Robinson returned home Sunday from St. Louis, where she visited her daughter.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Degonia, Saturday, a daughter.

VALLES MINES

Misses Edith and Josephine Turley and Carrie Shannon visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heaton Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sykes visited at the home of Wm. Heaton Sunday.
Misses Ethel and Dora White, of Crystal City, visited at the home of their parents Sunday.
Miss Thelma Horn visited her sister, Mrs. Henry Turley, Sunday and Monday.
Miss Estella Wooleen visited at the home of Mrs. E. Grandjean Monday.
Miss Ada Heaton, of St. Louis, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heaton, this week.
Misses Oda and Elsie Heaton was a visitor here Sunday.
Miss Elsie Heaton was guest of Miss Carrie Shannon Monday.
Miss Mary Statzel, of St. Louis, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Statzel, this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Turley and children visited Mrs. L. Turley Sunday.
Edmond and Emmett Rougely were Brickey visitors Sunday.
Mrs. Newman Edwards was a Bonne Terre visitor Sunday.
Miss Clara Douglas visited at the home of John Ellis Sunday.
Several from French Village and Hazel Run attended the ball game here Sunday.
Misses Carrie Shannon, Edith Turley, and Carl Richardson attended League at Roughly Sunday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson visited their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Waters, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Nash were St. Louis visitors this week.
Misses Blanche Heaton and Josephine Turley were guests of Miss Mabel White Sunday.
Miss Adolphia Thurman was a Bonne Terre visitor Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thurman were Bonne Terre visitors Sunday.
Mrs. Effie Turley is visiting her parents at Salem.
Miss Carrie Shannon was a visitor here Monday.
Misses Ada, Elsie and Olga Heaton visited Mrs. E. Turley Friday evening.
Miss Gertrude Riddle was guest of her brother, C. Riddle, Saturday.
Mrs. B. Finney and children visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Frazier, this week.
Miss Irene Turley was guest of Miss Mabel White Tuesday.
Miss Olga Heaton was guest of Carrie Shannon Tuesday.
Miss Octavia Riddle was guest of Mrs. James Riddle Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Nash visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker Sunday.
Misses Elsie and Olga Heaton and Carrie Shannon were Silver Springs visitors Wednesday night.

Exchange Your Old Player Rolls—They're Worth 33¢

Every old player music roll in your cabinet—regardless of the make—is worth 33c to you when applied on the price of any new U. S. Word Roll.

There Is No Other Exchange Plan but the U. S.

Davis Music Co.
FARMINGTON, MO.

